

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

YMCA Kicks Off Exciting Water Park Promotion

Fredericksburg, VA – March 7, 2011 – The Rappahannock Area YMCA has just announced an exciting promotion that will certainly have people thinking of warmer weather and summertime fun. Beginning Monday, March 14th the YMCA will offer families and individuals alike the chance at receiving one free family day pass to the YMCA's outdoor water park in Falmouth, provided they sign up for a standard YMCA membership.

In order to redeem the free family water park day pass individuals must first go online at www.ymcacoupon.com and print off a copy of the YMCA's money saving coupon. Once a family or individual is ready to enroll for membership they simply present the specially coded coupon at the Massad Family YMCA in Falmouth, The Ron Rosner YMCA in Spotsylvania County or The King George Family YMCA. Once a membership application is submitted, the YMCA will then issue the applicant their free family water park day pass. The free water park offer is an internet only promotion and may be redeemed only by those individuals who are able to present an online coupon when joining the YMCA. Along with the free family water park pass, the online coupon entitles a family or individual to at least fifty percent off the Y's initial joining fee!

The YMCA's water park season begins Memorial Day weekend and continues through Labor Day. Visit <http://www.family-ymca.org/newsite/massad/waterpark.php> for operating hours. The water park offers a 25 yard by 25 meter size swimming pool, two huge 30 foot water slides, a bathhouse and shower facility, Kiki's Lunchbox Concessions, spray toys and beach entry. The water park is located at The Massad Family YMCA on Butler Road in Stafford County.

To contact the Rappahannock Area YMCA with any questions, please call the Massad Family YMCA at (540) 371-9622.

XXX