EMBREY MILL SPORTS COMPLEX

Located at 1600 Mine Road, this park includes 8 lighted rectangular fields (6 synthetic) for youth soccer, lacrosse, and field hockey. This facility also has a playground, concession stand, parking lots, and restrooms. Two additional U6/ U10 will be coming online in 2019.

JEFF ROUSE SWIM & SPORTS CENTER

The Jeff Rouse Swim and Sport Center is Stafford County's premiere family health and wellness facility. Opened in May 2016, the Center features three pools including a 50-meter Olympic-size competition pool with movable bulkhead and seating for over 800 spectators, a 25-yard recreation pool with water features for kids, an 88 degree wellness pool, full-size basketball court, fitness floor, kids' club with activities, group fitness/cycling studios, and a full-service café.

CHICHESTER PARK

Stafford's Chichester Park opened in 2014 and is a great place for groups to host tournaments, games, or practices. This park is adjacent to major transportation thoroughfares providing easy access for families to the park and other destinations throughout Stafford. The park includes four 60/70' diamond fields, one 90' baseball field, protected spectator seating, a large picnic pavilion with restrooms and grills, a concession stand, a large parking area, trails for hiking and jogging, and restrooms. Chichester park is also home to Stafford County's only all-inclusive playground.

PATAWOMECK PARK

By now it is no secret that Stafford's open spaces make for great parks which are perfect for athletes engaged in a variety of sports. At Patawomeck Park, guests can utilize two lighted and irrigated 60/70' diamond fields and two lighted and irrigated rectangular fields. Certainly, everyone will enjoy the trails, picnic pavilion, grill, playground, and parking area. There are plans to expand the park in the near future, adding even more great amenities.

DUFF MCDUFF PARK

This Ferry Farm Park takes advantage of the area's natural beauty in a serene setting along the Rappahannock River. There are two 60/70' lighted and irrigated diamond fields and one 90' lighted and irrigated baseball field along with two lighted rectangular fields. The park has restrooms, picnic pavilions, a playground, trails, and home to a regional dog park.

WILLOMERE PARK

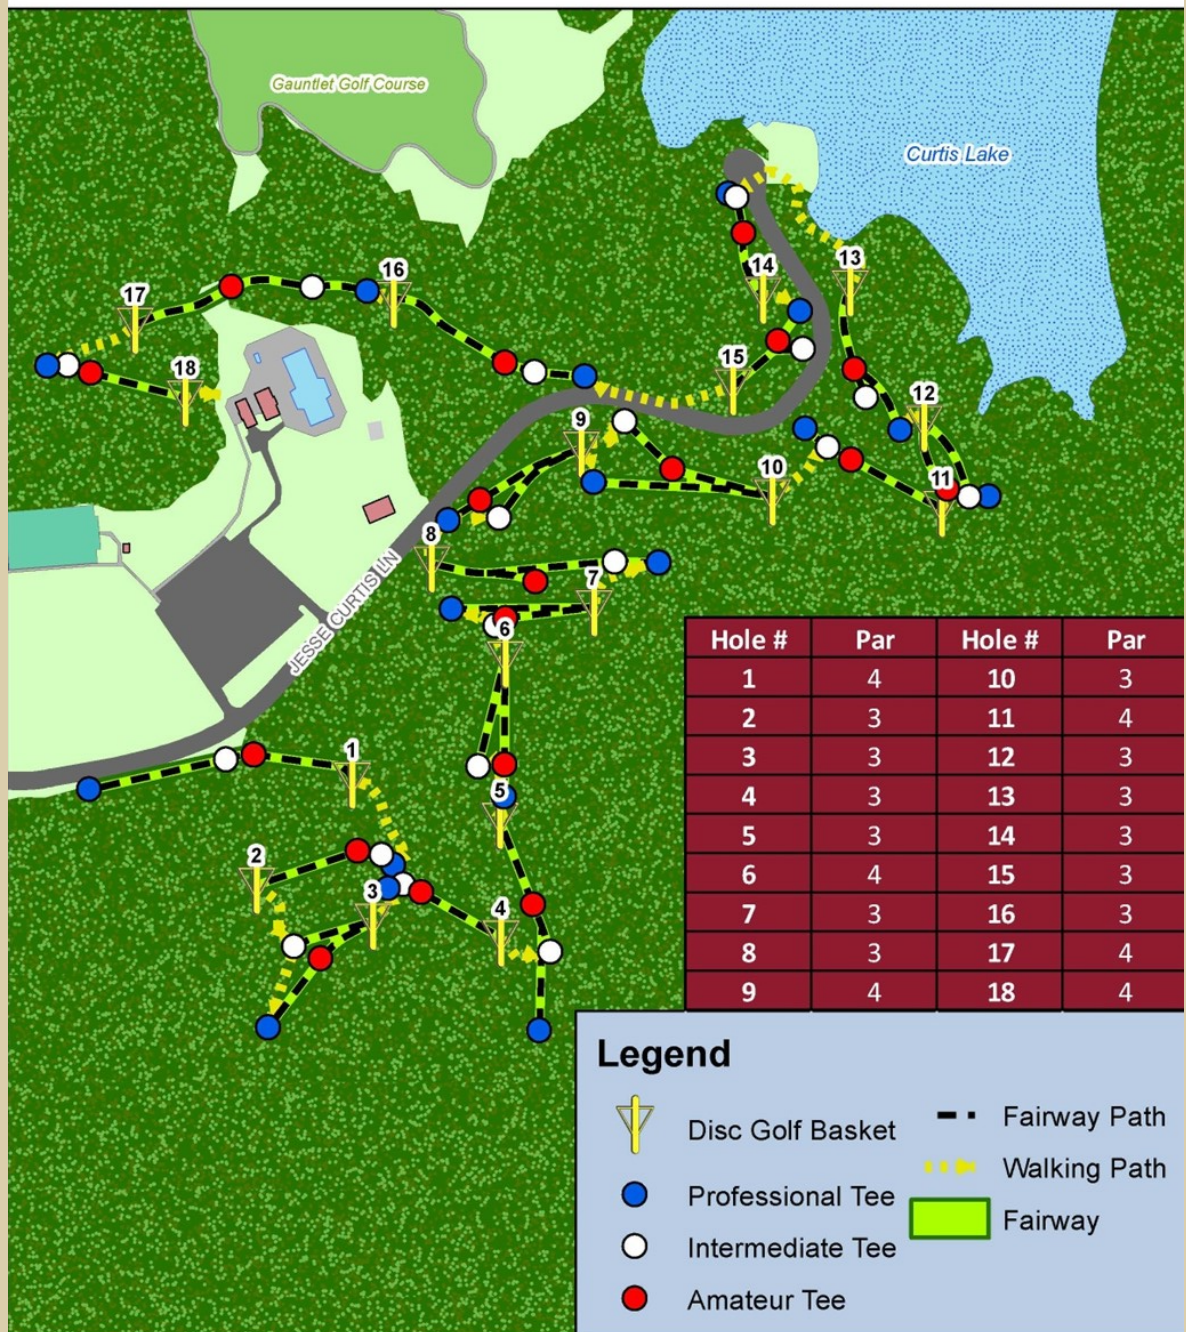

A familiar home to hosting events, Willowmere Park offers three 60' diamond fields, one lighted 90' baseball field, three rectangular fields, and plentiful open space. Other amenities include a playground, restrooms, and a picnic area to feed hungry mouths after the game. You can also stretch out your legs on the asphalt walking trail – great for a quick pre- or post-game shakeout.

CURTIS PARK

Curtis Memorial Park is located in Hartwood where athletes and spectators have plenty of room to move. This park includes lake access, an outdoor swimming pool, fishing, disc golf, horseshoe pits, multiple pavilions, pool concessions, picnic tables, a playground, restroom facilities, a skateboard park, a multi-purpose field, tennis courts, sand volleyball, and walking trails. Curtis Park is also home to the Gauntlet Golf Club. What more could you ask for?

ADVENTURE YOU DON'T WANT TO MISS!

Whether kayaking the Rappahannock, fishing for rockfish in the Potomac, or looking for eagles in the pristine Crow's Nest Natural Area Preserve, Stafford is your outdoor destination.

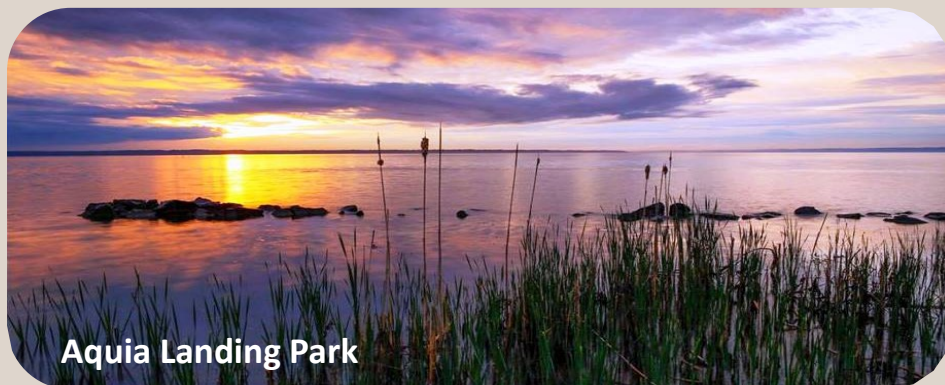

Visit TourStaffordVA.com for more information on exploring with us in Stafford, Virginia.

Abel Reservoir

Visit one of Stafford County's most scenic park and lake. Abel Reservoir contains a stocked fishing area, boating (electric motors only), and is great for hiking, and picnicking. A boat ramp with parking is available and is open year 'round from dawn to dusk. A Virginia State Fishing License is required to fish.

Aquia Landing Park

Open year-round, this popular public beach offers fishing, picnicking, kayaking and two large picnic shelters for rent. Rich in outdoor recreation and steeped in history, Aquia Landing is a special place in Stafford County. Aquia Landing is also an important stop on the Underground Railroad Network to Freedom.

Historic Port of Falmouth

Duff McDuff Dog Park

Dog Run area is roughly 4 acres of open field. Open to both small and large dogs. A great area for agility training and exercise, it also has access to the Rappahannock River.

Located off River Road, this area is a wonderful place to enjoy the beauty of the Rappahannock River. The area is a great place to fish, and it is equipped with picnic areas. This park also holds historical significance as the entry way for ships and commerce during the colonial era and the crossing area for thousands of enslaved people escaping to freedom in Falmouth beginning in April of 1862.

Visit the quarry where the U.S. Government's most famous buildings were born. Government Island, a historic 18th and 19th century quarry site provided Aquia sandstone for the construction of the U.S. Capitol and the White House and other historic buildings in Washington, D.C.

Government Island

Stafford Civil War Park

Experience the living conditions of Civil War soldiers. See display cases filled with thousands of bullets, belt buckles, and boots left behind by Civil War soldiers. Examine the enormity of America's greatest conflict. Maps, letters, and primary source materials are available at the research center.

Simply, a beautiful place and considered highly significant from numerous standpoints. The peninsula is deeply dissected on both its northern and southern flanks by a series of deep ravines cutting into ancient coastal plain marine sediments and feeding tidal marshes along the bordering creeks. Crow's Nest also includes a shoreline birding/nature trail to viewpoints of Accokeek Creek, and an ADA-accessible canoe/kayak launch facility for the Crow's Nest Water Trail.

Crow's Nest Natural Area Preserve

Enjoy a two-mile hike through three public parks in southern Stafford County. Scenic beauty surrounds you as the path winds through the Historic Port of Falmouth. The path is fully paved and provides scenic stops along the way. Hike It, Walk It, Run It, Bike It. It's Pet and Kid Friendly!
