

THE COZY READER Itinerary

Stop 1

START YOUR DAY AT THE GROUNDS COFFEEHOUSE

Tucked away and full of charm, this cozy café is the perfect place to ease into your day. Sip a handcrafted coffee, sink into a comfy corner with your favorite book, and savor the peaceful pace of a slow morning. Don't forget to try one of their fresh pastries or light breakfast bites—just the fuel you need for the day.

Stop 2

TOUR GARI MELCHERS HOME AND STUDIO

Wander through the former home of a celebrated artist, where blooming gardens and serene landscapes invite you to slow down and stay awhile. Surrounded by creative energy and timeless beauty, you'll feel inspired to pen your own story—so bring a notebook, a picnic blanket, and a pencil, and let the perfect trope begin to unfold beneath the trees.

Stop 3

SHOPPING AT TATES CORNER

Treat yourself to a little retail therapy at Stafford's newest locally owned gift shop—a charming spot filled with personality and treasures. Whether you're hunting for the perfect plant or a whimsical trinket to brighten your reading nook, this is the place to find something uniquely you.

Stop 4

DINNER AT AMY'S CAFE

End your perfectly cozy day wrapped in the warmth of Amy's Café, where the atmosphere feels like a comforting hug. Their menu is filled with nostalgic, feel-good favorites that taste just like home—reminiscent of your mom's best recipes and second helpings at the dinner table.

